

"....those who wait for the Lord shall renew their strength, they shall mount up with wings like eagles, they shall run and not be weary, they shall walk and not faint."

Isaiah 40:31

As social distancing and the ongoing restrictions continue, what are you waiting for?

Come to take some time to be quiet. To find some new ways of understanding ourselves in relation to God as we enter into THE WAITING PLACE OF GOD.

Whether you are unsure of the next step or have a clear sense of away forward, this quiet day on zoom will provide an opportunity to nurture your spiritual wellbeing.

With two short talks, a guided meditation and time to reflect on what God might be saying to you as an individual, the day will provide time to wait with God.

Book your place by Wednesday 14th October.

Places are limited to 15. TO ATTEND THE EVENT: Register Here A link will be sent to you to give you access to the day
