

Through the eyes of a donkey.

Jane Morrison 2016

Waiting in the cobbled street,
Two men come on a mission
No need for permission.
It was a day I shall always remember!

Travelling the Palm strewn road to Jerusalem,
With Jesus – a man on a mission
Part of the Passover tradition.
It was a day I shall always remember!

Standing in Gethesmane's garden,
Judas comes on a mission
Betrays with a kiss of derision.
It was a day I shall always remember!

Pausing in the fire lit courtyard,
The cock crows his mission
As Peter regrets his decision.
It was a day I shall always remember!

Peering outside the city wall,
The soldiers complete their mission
Men on crosses – death by crucifixion.
It was a day I shall always remember!

Watching in that peaceful garden,
Three women come on a mission,
'Mary' the Gardener quietly said – recognition!
This is a day we must ALL Remember!
